Note: Edward Ford, the son of John Baptiste Ford, was born in Greenville and lived here for several years. Edward went on to establish the Edward Ford Plate Glass Company in Rossford Ohio, a town he basically built around his glass factory. Edward was known for his business acumen largely accredited to lessons from his father. More specifically, he was known for his skillful employee relations. In August of 2016, the Edward Ford Plate Glass Company Employee Relations Building was listed on the National Register of Historic Places.
